BORDEAUX PRESTIGE

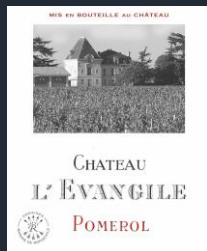

1. Taste 7 prestigious wines & Discover 7 major Bordeaux appellations

It did not take more than a few years after its creation (1811) before the Chateau became famous with royalty all over the world. The wines are rich, sensuous, age-worthy, concentrated, refined, powerful, elegant, and tannic.
(Vintage 2009)

Located on the top of the Saint Emilion limestone plateau, this stylish Bordeaux wine dates back to 1700s. Notes of dark berries, licorice, spicy scents, coupled with opulent personality
(Vintage 2009)

L'Evangile is one of the oldest properties in Pomerol, dates back to 1741. Owner is the famous Pauillac Chateau Lafite Rothschild
(Vintage 2012)

The estate dates back to 1530s and holds some of the oldest vines in Bordeaux (120 years of age)! This finesse-styled Bordeaux perfectly combines spicy, ripe fruit with supple textures, potent smoke and tobacco-filled aromatics coupled to produce a wine of elegance and balance.
(Vintage 2008)

Around since 1661, this wine was one of the favorite's of Thomas Jefferson. The 140 acres offer a wine of complex spicy and floral aromatics, purity of fruit, refined textures, concentration & harmony that few other wines deliver
(Vintage 2006)

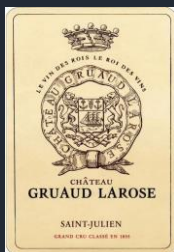

Saint Julien is famous for its terroir (80% of the land around the village is under 1855 classification). And we are tasting one of the best!
(Vintage 2010)

Pauillac produces the most brilliant wines of Bordeaux and Pichon Lalande is in the top 3! Sensuous textures, deep concentrated layers of ripe fruit and a perfume filled with earth, tobacco, and cassis.
(Vintage 2009)

Gruaud Larose is a powerful Bordeaux wine, produced in a traditional style, that in the best vintages has the special quality that allows it to age, evolve, and improve for decades. The vineyard is exactly the same today as it was when it was classified as a Second Growth in the 1855 Classification of the Medoc. The vineyards of Gruaud Larose have the highest point of elevation on the Saint Julien plateau. With average wines of 46 years old, the chateau produces on average close to 18,000 cases of Saint Julien wine each year. Most of the work in the vineyards is done with organic farming techniques.

Robert Parker
WINE ADVOCATE

Phenomenal property delivering consistent outstanding wines. Established by the famous Jean de Pontac (owner of Chat. Haut Brion), the winemaker to have revolutionized winemaking in the 1750s.

(2009 Vintage)

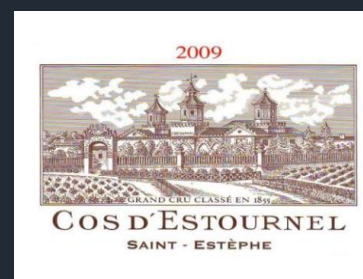

Chateau Pontet Canet is one of the top 5 most wanted Bordeaux on the planet. It is a powerful Bordeaux wine. It's concentrated, balanced, tannic, and charming as well. Being a fifth growth, this is a hidden gem in the 1855 classification family producing 2nd growth quality for a 4th of the price!

(Vintage 2009)

Chateau Lafite Rothschild is the #1 ranking in the 1855 classified growth. It is known for producing what some tasters think is the best Bordeaux wine. It's also thought of as one of the most famous, as well as most expensive wines in the world. 2010 is considered as one of the 30 best vintages in 120 years!

(Vintage 2010)

It did not take more than a few years after it's creation in 1811 before it became famous with royalty all over the world. Chateau Cos d'Estournel is clearly one of the best producers in the Medoc. They are making one of the most exciting Bordeaux wines today! The wines are rich, sensuous, age-worthy, concentrated, refined, powerful, elegant, and tannic. 2009 vintage is one of the finest ever produced.

(Vintage 2009)

While wine collectors & winemakers can enjoy arguing which is the best wine of a specific appellation, there is only one wine in the world that is the undisputed best wine in the region. We're not just talking about Bordeaux, we're talking about any of the world's wine-producing regions. That unique honor goes to Chateau d'Yquem. Chateau d'Yquem is the only wine that almost everyone, everywhere agrees stands heads and shoulders above every other wine in the appellation
